

Step 7 - Communication

Having computers available to the students in Ghana means that they are able to communicate with schools in the UK via the Internet. CARE are working towards creating school partnerships so that their students develop international links through collaborative projects.
More information about wiping the data.