

Worthing Herald article about CARE

The Worthing Herald has been helping to bring attention to the work CARE are trying to do in Ghana by publishing an article highlighting the project and how people can get involved.

You can view their full article on the Worthing Herald website by clicking on the link below.

-

Computer call brings IT home to needy - 7 September 2006